He was watching. They were all watching. Imagine the ultimate bet, with saving your lifelong dream on one hand, and standing completely naked on a counter in front of a crowd of cheering strangers on the other. "Bean" had a dream, to start an independent coffee shop with perfect drinks and great atmosphere. But the dream is about to go bust, and her bank account with it. Then a tall, handsome stranger with dark skin and hazel eyes steps in front of her counter and changes her life forever. He has a special proposition...she can save the coffee shop, but one of the two of them will end up stripped naked in front of her customers to do it. Win or lose, what can go wrong? She'll end up exposing her body to the crowd, and to the stranger with his bulging muscles and penetrating eyes. Or else HE will be the one to lose every last bit of clothes, while she drinks in every inch of his body... The bet is on. And what will happen later that night, when the mysterious stranger returns, and she (and her two friends) are waiting, and watching?
