Tess' boss offers her seven-hundred dollars to spank her to relieve his frustrations. Tess is stunned but the money is hard to resist. It's nothing sexual ... her boss is older and she's worked for him a long time. But the second his hand swats her behind, she feels things she's never felt before. Then she cannot wait for more of her boss' disciplinary spanking. She just wished she had a boyfriend to share her over-the-top arousal with. Because with her boss it's only spanking ...

Then the blackmail photos arrive. Someone has pictures of their increasingly more illicit spanking and bondage sessions. What does the blackmailer want? To spank Tess. Only he is young and has a sexy voice. He's seen what Tess does after the spanking sessions with her boss. Tess' blackmailer knows just how to fulfill her needs. But once she gets fired, she fears she's lost him. Until a masked man shows up in her bedroom in the dark, while she's asleep ...
