The Swarm has returned. They attack mercilessly, wiping out all human life they encounter. Our best ships. Our newest weapons. But Lunar Base won't go down without a fight. Beneath its dome, medic Kadence Leigh pulls the wounded from the rubble and makes it her mission to get them to safety, Swarm or no Swarm. Along the way she acquires the help of a ragged group of Lunar Base survivors: a wounded admiral, an AWOL commander, and a renegade pilot.

They must set aside old conflicts and band together in a fight to survive the Lunar Base apocalypse.

Will their combined skills be enough to save them from humanity's most brutal foe?
